EXHIBIT A

Description of the Services

The Family Division of the 7th Judicial Circuit Court is required to appoint legal counsel to represent minor children in juvenile proceedings, to include child protective and delinquency petitions. There are four (4) judges and two (2) full-time attorney referees in the Family Division.

In child protective proceedings, the scope of work for legal services begins at a preliminary hearing and continues through disposition and review(s). Appeals are also included in the scope of work, subject to the legal determination of CAT as to the filing or response in individual instances.

In delinquency proceedings, legal representation will be provided for juvenile ages 10-17 and legal representation begins at the preliminary hearing and continues through case closure.

Legal representation of a juvenile charged with a serious felony, being prosecuted as an adult, is not included in the scope of work.

In the event there is a conflict of interest which precludes CAT from providing legal representation, in a child protective proceeding, the first option is for the managing attorneys of the parent representation contracts to be contacted. The purpose of the contact is to determine if counsel can be provided to represent the minor without creating an additional conflict of interest. If further conflict is unavoidable, the court is responsible for payment of alternate counsel.

If there is a conflict of interest which precludes CAT from providing legal representation in a delinquency proceeding, independent counsel will be appointed, and the court will be responsible for payment.

Other legal services are required on an infrequent basis. The services include appointment as guardian ad litem (GAL) in the following: (1) state ward as a proposed adoptee in adoption proceedings (2) minor at post termination review (PTR) hearing (3) parental waiver hearings and (4) a designation hearing on a delinquency petition.

Legal representation at any specialty courts or special dockets will be as the Parties agree.

CAT will provide representation for minor children in the Family Drug Court. Compensation and services are not included in this contract. Reference is included only to memorialize the operational plan for minor representation.

The court will not routinely schedule referee review hearings at the same time as juvenile trials. In compelling circumstances, the court reserves the right to depart from this schedule.

One attorney will be assigned to each of the family division judges. The staff attorney members of the Child Advocacy Team are Terina Carte, Karen Bunker, Teresa Holifield, Shayla Blankenship, and Marcia Stipes.

The court recognizes that occasional substitute counsel may be required to appear to perform the scope of work. The court expressly retains the right to approve, in advance, any attorney who may be retained to provide additional legal services under this provision.
